der County, Penn., June 15, 1833, and is the son of Henry and Elizabeth Zellers, also natives of Pennsylvania. The family came to this township in 1848, where the mother died in 1871, and the father in 1875. Mr. Zellers was married in this township to Miss Mary A. Martz, a native of Pennsylvania. Of the children born to this union there are nine living—Sarah J., James A., Margaret M., Elizabeth, Clara B., Hattie, Dora, Nelson and Charlie. Mr. Zellers has resided on his present farm since 1860; it contains 180 acres, and none in the township can surpass it. He raises grain and deals in stock principally, handling on an average twenty-five to thirty head of cattle. He is at present a member of the Board of Commissioners, having been elected to the office in the fall of 1880.

SALEM TOWNSHIP.

JOHN J. ADAMS was born in England February 27, 1845. His parents died when he was about eight years of age. He attended school until about sixteen, and was then employed for a short time in a dry goods store in London; he was afterward employed by a pawnbroker in the same city, with whom he remained till twenty-one years of age. In 1866, he came to America and located in Grundy County, Ill., where he worked on a farm. February 2, 1867, he married Fanny, daughter of Lawrence and Isabella (Hannihan) Wills, and born September 30, 1843. To this union five children have been born—Frederick W., December 2, 1868; Sylvia B., September 2, 1870; Annie M. and a twin sister (deceased), November 12, 1872, and James E., April 30, 1877. In 1879, Mr. Adams came to this township, purchased eighty acres of land, partially improved, and has now a finely improved farm of 160 acres. Mr. Adams and wife are attendants at the M. E. Church, and in politics, he is a Republican.

JOHN C. BREWER was born in North Carolina April 7, 1817, and is the son of William and Elizabeth (Cavaness) Brewer, of whom the former was born in North Carolina in 1768, and the latter in Virginia in 1770. When John C. was aged about twelve, his parents came to Morgan County, this State. There our subject worked at the carpenter's trade from the age of seventeen until April 6, 1836, when he married Mary E., daughter of Noah Wilhite, of Oldham County, Ky. To this union were born eleven children—Urban C., June 27, 1837; Parthena A., January 31, 1839; Minerva J., December 6, 1840; Mary E. (deceased), December 12, 1842; William A., March 17, 1845; Cynthia December 7, 1852; Theodocia (and a twin sister who died in infancy), November 8, 1855, and Malinda C., October 8, 1858. After his marriage, Mr. Brewer engaged in various pursuits until 1857, when he came to White Post Township, this county, where he farmed until 1860; he then came to Francesville, farmed two years; he was then appointed Postmaster under Lincoln, started a general store, and in 1874 was reappointed Postmaster under Grant, but three years later was compelled to relinquish business on account of ill health. From 1861 to 1863, he kept the Brewer House in Francesville. Mr. B. is a Mason, and he and wife are members of Christian Church. Frederick Cavaness, grandfather of our subject, was born in England and died in North Carolina about 1823; his grandmother was a native of Holland, and died in North Carolina in about 1825.

WILLIAM A. BREWER, son of John C. and Mary E. (Wilhite) Brewer, was born in Morgan County, Ind., March 17, 1845, and there attended school till aged about seventeen, when his father moved his family to White Post Township, this county. William worked on the home farm for awhile and then came to Francesville and clerked for some time. April 15, 1866, he married Margaret M., daughter of Dr. Robert Mattingly, and to this union were born five children—Mary E., January 3, 1867; Cora M., March 4, 1869; Robert C., March 4, 1871; Margaret E., March 5, 1873, and Willie, in January, 1874, at which time Mrs. Brewer died. April 1, 1869, Mr. Brewer was appointed agent for the American Express Company, and he still holds the position; at the same time he engaged in the lumber business to some extent—his largest sale in one day reaching 130,000 feet of fencing. February 14, 1875, he married Eliza A., daughter of Abraham and Gramilda Ann (Wilson) Dennis, who has borne him five children—Otho D. and Guy D., September 9, 1876; Paul B., May 6, 1878; Gramilda, August 13, 1880, and Jennie F., September 4, 1882 (died September 18, 1882). In August, 1878, Mr. Brewer engaged in general merchandising, and has now a fine store well stocked with a full line of dry goods, clothing, hats and caps, boots and shoes, ladies' and gents' furnishing goods, groceries, canned goods, game, etc., etc. Mr. Brewer is a Mason, a member of the Christian Church and a Republican. Mrs. Brewer is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

DR. STEPHEN I. BROWN was born near the town of Pulaski, this county, June 17, 1848. His father, Ira Brown, was born in New Jersey October 30, 1813, and his mother, Sophia (Blew) Brown, in Franklin County, Ind., December 18, 1816. Stephen I. attended school until about sixteen years of age, when he enlisted in Company H, Forty-sixth Illinois Volunteer Infantry and was with his regiment in all its

the leading business men of Medaryville, where, on the 27th of August, 1882, he was united in marriage to Miss Mira Harris. They have had six children, namely: Guy W., Grace F., Melvin Earl, Jessie Pearl (who died in infancy), and Willard D. Our subject's elder daughter, Olivinia, received excellent educational advantages, attending the normal school at Valparaiso, after which she was for six years engaged in school-teaching in the vicinity of her home. Since resigning her pedagogic work she has been an efficient and faithful business assistant and companion to her father. She has given much attention to religious and literary work, having been one of the foremost and most zealous workers in the Christian church from her early childhood. She was superintendent of the Sunday-school for many years, is a deaconess in the church, a member of the W. C. T. U., and an active worker in the temperance cause. Mary E., the youngest daughter, became the wife of Charles E. Hershman, a merchant of Rensselaer, this state, he being a deacon in the Christian church. Of this union two children have been born,—Norvin E., and Frederick, who died in infancy.

John C. Brewer, the father of Mrs. Frederick, is one of the venerable citizens of Francesville. He is a native of North Carolina, born four miles southwest of Raleigh, in Randolph county, April 7, 1817, a son of William and Elizabeth (Cavaness) Brewer. William Brewer was the son of Nathan, who was of the old colonial stock of that state, and a farmer of Chatham county, same state. The children of Nathan, so far as remembered, were Carroll, Willis, Daniel and William. William Brewer, also a native of North Carolina, was a farmer by occupation, who married Elizabeth Cavaness, a daughter of Frederick Cavaness, who was a native of England, of English ancestry, and emigrated to this country, settling near Halifax, Culpeper county, Virginia, and afterward in Randolph county, North Carolina. In Virginia he married Sarah Hollingshead, who was of Holland Dutch stock. He, Mr. Cavaness, was a farmer, owning a good farm of two hundred acres in the Old North state, and he died in that state, at an advanced age. His children were Elizabeth, Walker and Nancy.

William Brewer, after marriage, continued to reside in Randolph county, North Carolina, was a farmer owning one hundred and ten acres, and in 1828 emigrated to Indiana, settling in Morgan county, where he located a tract of land. A few years afterward he purchased more land, cleared it, and finally had a fine property of seven hundred and eighty acres. He continued to reside in that county until his death, passing away at the age of sixty-four years. He was an industrious and exemplary citizen, a Democrat in his politics, and in religion a member of the Methodist church. His children were Sarah, Polly, Frederick, Walker, Nancy, Levin, Elizabeth, John C., Enoch, Anderson and Lydia.

John C. Brewer was about twelve years old when he left North Carolina with his parents for Indiana. He received but little education, learned both the arts of agriculture and the trade of carpenter, at which latter he employed himself for eighteen years. For several years he was also engaged in mercantile business, and in 1856 he was postmaster. In 1857 he moved to Pulaski county, this state, locating upon rented land four miles north of Francesville. Soon he bought and improved a tract of eighty acres. In the fall of 1860 he moved to Francesville, still continuing the cultivation of his farm; but at length he again engaged in merchandising, which he continued a few years, and under President Harrison's administration he was postmaster for four years. He is now retired from active life, and is a highly respected citizen, venerable with age and great experience.

In Morgan county, this state, he was united in matrimony, April 6, 1836, to Mary E. Wilhite, who was born in Oldham county, Kentucky, December 9, 1816, a daughter of Noah and Polly (Williams) Wilhite. Noah Wilhite was a farmer and school-teacher, and his skill both in arithmetic and in penmanship are well remembered. A native of the Old Dominion, he emigrated to Kentucky with his father, Aaron Wilhite, who also was a native of Virginia and a pioneer of Kentucky, settling in Oldham county. His children were Lamech, Noah, Joseph, Enoch, Isham, Benjamin, Milton, Polly, Martha, Matilda, Ely, Nancy and perhaps others. Noah Wilhite and wife are the parents of Samuel, Elizabeth, Nancy, Jane, Aaron, Edward, Michael, Matilda, Thomas, Noah, John, Eli and Melissa. Noah Wilhite settled in Oldham county, Kentucky, and was a farmer. Moving in 1834 to Indiana, he located in Morgan county, where he purchased land, cleared it and reduced it to cultivation; he had a good farm of two hundred acres. He died near Hall, that county, at the age of seventy-five years, a member of the Christian church, in which he had been an elder for many years. He was an upright and highly respected citizen.

John C. Brewer and wife were the parents of the following children: Urban C., Parthenia A., Nancy J., Mary E., William, Cynthia A., Candasie, John, Theodosia and Melinda—all of whom lived to years of maturity. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer are both members of the Christian church, in which he has been an elder for more than twenty-five years. He was one of the organizers of his church in his community, and built their house of worship. In politics he is a Republican, and formerly he was an old-line Whig. He is well known as a straightforward and upright man. His son, Rev. Urban C. Brewer, is a minister of the Christian church, entering that ministry at the early age of seventeen years. He has been a preacher of the gospel in New York city for eight years, being there during the civil war. He is now settled in Danville, Hendricks county, Indiana.

Freddie B., the second born, is deceased. In July, 1898, Walter M., the eldest, enlisted as a private in Company I, One Hundred and Sixty-first Regiment National Infantry, for service in the Spanish war, and was promoted to be a corporal. In camp at Jacksonville, Florida, he became sick with malaria, and was a sufferer for some time. In December following he went to Cuba with his regiment, and was assigned to the Signal Corps, Thirteenth Company, and was in that service until the end of the war. He served longer than his regiment, and until May, 1899, and then returned home, bringing many interesting relics of a conflict which must ever mark an era in our national development.

Mr. Engle is a Democrat, and as such is a factor in local politics. He has been a member of the town council of Francesville, and is now town treasurer. His career is one to which any man in his part of the state might point with pride, and the spirit which has animated him through all his years of success has been a spirit of fairness, which has made him a living exemplar of the policy of "live and let live." His public spirit is active, and always wisely directed.

JOHN H. MALLON.

Prominent among the wide-awake, enterprising and progressive business men of Pulaski county is John H. Mallon, a well-known merchant of Francesville. He is an important factor in business circles, and is public-spirited and thoroughly interested in whatever tends to promote the moral, social or material welfare of his town or county.

A native of Pennsylvania, Mr. Mallon was born in Washington county December 16, 1838, a son of Neal and Bridget (Bradley) Mallon. The father, who was a native of Ireland, was a farmer, stone-mason and contractor by occupation, and built the first stone bridge for railroad purposes on the line of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. It was also one of the first stone railroad bridges in the United States, if not the very first. He was a successful and prosperous business man, and at one time owned eight hundred acres of land in Pennsylvania. In 1842, with his family, he moved to Morgan county, Indiana, where he purchased two hundred acres of land covered with a heavy growth of timber, and in the midst of the forest developed a fine farm. He was one of the most prominent and influential citizens of his community, had the confidence and high regard of all who knew him, and held the office of township trustee. He died in Morgan county in 1858, at the age of fifty-two years. Of his children there were: Mary A., John H., Elizabeth, Rebecca, Isabelle, Francis T. and Susannah.

The subject of this sketch was only three years old when taken by his parents to Morgan county, Indiana, where he received a good common-school education, and for three years he subsequently engaged in teaching school there. Later he followed farming and then mercantile pursuits, as a clerk in a store at Tuscola, Illinois, whither he went in 1864. The following year he came to Francesville and for about three years clerked for Samuel Reishling. He then embarked in general merchandising on his own account, as a member of the firm of Mallon & Daseke, but two years later succeeded to the entire business, which he has since conducted with marked success, having built up a large and profitable trade. In 1872 he erected a store building at the corner where he now does business, but in 1893 it was destroyed by fire, together with a large portion of its contents. As he carried but light insurance his loss was very heavy, amounting to ten thousand dollars. His present brick block, which is a modern structure, two stories in height, was built by him in 1899. He carries a large and well assorted stock of general merchandise, and as a reliable and conscientious business man he is meeting with well deserved success, receiving a liberal share of the public patronage. He is the oldest merchant in years of continuous business in Francesville, and is widely known and highly respected by the entire community. Politically he is a Prohibitionist; and socially is a prominent member of Monon Lodge, No. 208, F. & A. M., of Francesville, in which he has filled all the principal offices and has served as master for eleven years.

On the 28th of March, 1862, Mr. Mallon married, in Morgan county, Indiana, Miss Delilah Williams, a native of Kentucky, who died a few months later, leaving no children. He was again married, May 30, 1865, in Francesville, his second union being with Miss Minerva J. Brewer, a daughter of John C. Brewer, and to them have been born two children: Urban C. and Ada Belle.

JOSEPH J. FREDERICK.

On the list of the honored pioneers of northern Indiana appears the name of Joseph J. Frederick, of Medaryville, who has long been prominently connected with the educational, agricultural and mercantile interests of this part of the state. He has been a most active factor in the substantial development and progress, and in all the walks of life his fidelity to duty and his trustworthiness have been so manifest as to win him the highest regard and confidence of his fellow townsmen. He taught the first school in the village of Medaryville, and is now one of its enterprising merchants.

Mr. Frederick is of Welsh and German descent, and his people were early settlers of Kentucky. His grandparents, Joseph and Sarah Frederick, were early settlers of that state, and there reared their family of four intended to advance the general good. The Enterprise now has a large circulation and good advertising patronage, and is meeting with gratifying success.

In February, 1891, Mr. Walker became a member of Orion Lodge, No. 598, F. & A. M., of Wolcott, in which he has since held a number of offices, being treasurer at the present writing. In October, 1894, he became one of the few charter members of the Knights of Pythias lodge of Wolcott, and has the honor of being the only man in the state to receive the title of past chancellor, but he did not accept the office. He is also keeper of the records and seals, which office he has held for two years. He joined the Modern Woodmen of America, in July, 1898, and was elected to office therein in the spring of 1899.

On the 21st of June, 1899, Mr. Walker was united in marriage to Miss Bessie Law, a daughter of J. R. and Mary (Simms) Law. They have a wide acquaintance in Wolcott and enjoy the warm regard of many friends.

CORNELIUS M. HORNER.

Starting out in life a poor boy, with nothing but a country-school education, no influential friends or rich relatives to lend him a helping hand, the success which has come to C. M. Horner is solely and entirely the result of his own individual efforts. The history of his life should be an inspiration to every youth who, humble, poor and unfriended, feels at times utterly discouraged, thinking that he can never rise to a place of honor and wealth. To-day C. M. Horner is one of the richest men and largest tax-payers in White county and is the president of the Monon Bank.

Born in the vicinity of the town of Wapakoneta, Auglaize county, Ohio, January 3, 1842, Mr. Horner is a son of Elias and Dorothy (Smith) Horner, who were natives of England. Their first home in this country was the birthplace of our subject, and for a few years the father was engaged in merchandising in that locality. In 1844 he came to this state, where he was a pioneer merchant for many years. At first he was located in Michigan City and afterward at New Durham, his goods being transported from Michigan City by team. For some three years he was a local minister, belonging to the Northwestern Indiana Conference. His death occurred when he was in his sixty-fifth year. His widow survived him a number of years, and passed away at the age of seventy. Of their ten children only four are living.

When he was two years old Cornelius Montford Horner was brought to Indiana, in which state he has since resided, identified with all movements which have tended to develop its resources and foremost in the advocacy of public improvements. He remained with his parents until he was a lad of about thirteen years, when he went to Pulaski county, Indiana, and there attended the common schools. At eighteen he started out to earn his own livelihood independently by renting a farm, and was obliged to go in debt for the one horse which he required on the place. He was very industrious, working early and late, and during the winter season he taught school. He was aided in his earnest endeavors by his faithful wife, formerly Miss Mary E. Brewer, whom he married in 1860. He was soon enabled to purchase forty acres of land near Medaryville, but sold his property and removed his family to Francesville at the call of his country for defenders of the Union. He enlisted at the one-hundred-days call for troops, becoming a private of Company A, One Hundred and Thirty-eighth Indiana Volunteer Infantry. Before the expiration of his service in this regiment he re-enlisted in the One Hundred and Fifty-first Indiana Volunteer Infantry, for a term of one year, and his service as thus continued extended to the close of the war. He participated in many important battles and engagements with the enemy, among others those of Stone river and Nashville.

His patriotic duty completed, Mr. Horner returned to the peaceful vocations of life, and in 1865 came to Monon, where he has since been numbered among the valued citizens of the place. Here he opened a small general store, increased its capacity from time to time, and built up a large and remunerative business, which he continued to conduct until 1894. In 1885 he built a fine, substantial brick business block, and in 1892 he established the Monon Bank. Making many fortunate investments in land and in various enterprises, Mr. Horner has steadily grown in prosperity, and now pays more taxes than any two other men in the county. In addition to his local interests he owns property in Decatur, Illinois, to the value of thirty thousand dollars; has two large business blocks in Des Moines, Iowa, valued at about fifty thousand dollars; and property in Kansas, Illinois and various Indiana counties.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Horner have been born two children, who are yet living: William C., who is a cashier in his father's bank, and Emma F., wife of W. J. Hinkle, of Monon. In 1873 Mr. Horner married Miss Lucy J. Kerr, and their five children are as follows: J. Francis; Mary E., wife of Alonzo Reed, a mine-owner in Colorado Springs, Colorado; and Flora E., Alta K. and Herbert H., all at home.

In his political views Mr. Horner is a stalwart Republican, unswerving in support of the party principles, but takes no active part in political work, preferring to devote his energies to the care of his investments. That he has manifested unusual ability and genius in this direction, needs no demonstration. His success has come through the legitimate channels of trade, and no charge of over-reaching or unfairness has ever been justly laid at his honor and mark of respect paid him. Alfred Woods married Jane Maria McClain, a daughter of Alexander McClain, who was a pioneer in Tippecanoe County. The names of their seven children were: Alice, William, Albert A., Altheus, James K., Jr., Jennie and Archibald. The only ones still living are William and Albert, the latter a resident of Cowley County, Kansas.

William Woods, who represents the third generation in White County, was born May 13, 1850, on section 34, range 4 in Prairie Township, and that one locality has always been his home. He has desired no other calling than that of a farmer, and has made that vocation the basis of a considerable success. His estate comprises 290 acres, situated three miles east of Brookston, and in the course of his active career he has not only provided a good home and advantages for his growing family of children but now has ample provision for his own declining years. At the same time he has been public spirited in his attitude toward community affairs, but has never interested himself in party politics, though he is a republican voter. He is a member of the Universalist Church.

On November 13, 1889, he married Miss Isola May Hendrickson, a daughter of Erick and Mary J. Hendrickson of White County. Of the eight children born to their union one died in infancy and all the others, with one exception are living at home. Their names are: Alfred H.; Walter A., who lives at Monroe, Michigan, and by his marriage to Adriah M. Hague has one child named Albert; James K.; Mary Jane; Lloyd D.; Earl D.; and Blanche R.

Cornelius M. Horner. As a merchant and banker Cornelius M. Horner has been identified with practically every phase of development and progress in Monon during the past half century, having located in that town soon after the close of the war in which he fought on the Union side.

Mr. Horner was born in Auglaize County, Ohio, January 3, 1842, and is the only one living and the youngest of ten children born to Elias and Elizabeth D. (Smith) Horner. Both parents were born near Leeds, England, were married in the old country and came to the United States after their first child was born. After settling in Ohio the father taught school, bought stock and rafted them down the Ohio river to various markets. After coming to Indiana in 1844 he engaged in merchandising at New Durham in LaPorte County. In early manhood he became identified with the Methodist Episcopal Church as a minister, at a time when the preachers of that state followed the Peter Cartwright method of traveling from place to place. His death occurred at New Durham during the '50 and his widow survived many years.

Cornelius M. Horner died at Monon May 17, 1920

Cornelius M. Horner lived in LaPorte County, Indiana, from infancy until about sixteen or seventeen years of age and there received most of his education in the public schools. Several years following were spent with a brother on a farm near Medaryville in Pulaski County. While there, at the age of nineteen, he was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Brewer. The four children of that union were: Dorothy; Urban E.; William C., now in the banking business at Monon; and Emma.

Before the war Mr. Horner had also had some experience as a small farmer, and his crops were raised from the virgin soil through which he had directed the first plow. This was the manner of his life until the beginning of the war, when he endeavored to enlist at the first call for troops. The quota was full, however, but he subsequently enlisted in Company A of the 138th Indiana Infantry, and was with that command in one of the early campaigns of the Mississippi Valley, including the battle of Stone River. With the expiration of his first year of enlistment he re-enlisted in the same company, which became Company A of the 151st Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He remained with that regiment during all its service until the close of the war, when he received an honorable discharge.

In December, 1865, Mr. Horner located at Monon, and engaged in merchandising. For thirty years he was a prosperous merchant, and in 1892 established a bank in his store. His store was sold about 1894, and since then he has confined his attention to banking.

For his second wife Mr. Horner married Miss Lucy J. Kerr. Their five living children are: J. Francis; Mary E.; Florence; Alta K., who married Edward Smith; and Herbert H., who was graduated from the State University of Indiana.

Mr. Horner is a republican but has never been an aspirant for political office. He began life's battle on his own responsibility, and such success as he has attained has been entirely through his own efforts.

Morris Jacob Holtzman. A distinct loss to the citizenship and progressive business spirit of White County was the death of the late Morris Jacob Holtzman, which occurred at Brookston in Prairie Township March 24, 1915. Most of the years of his life were spent in Prairie Township and there are many reasons why his name should be held in respect and honor in that community. Over the county at large his name became especially familiar through his service as county auditor some years ago. He had a large personal following of friends and it would be difficult to enumerate and classify all the usefulness and valuable influences that came from his character, though his death came when only a little beyond his prime.

R. and Mary E. Mr. Frederick has done much toward the training and educating of the youth of his day, having taught school for eighteen consecutive years. He has been a member of the Christian Church since 1850, and is strictly honest in all his dealings.

ELIJAH C. HANSELL was born in Putnam County, Ind., October 27, 1842, and is the son of George and Mary Ann (Wilkinson) Hansell. This couple are the parents of thirteen children, viz.: Juretta, John, David, Elijah, Joseph, Rachel, Hannah, Elizabeth, Mary, George, Jonathan, Jehu and Rebecca. Of these, John, Joseph and Elizabeth are dead. The father was born in Virginia in 1813, is a farmer, and is now living in Putnam County with his wife, who was born in February, 1817. At the age of twenty-five, Elijah came to this township, and moved on his present place in May, 1869. He was married, September 5, 1867, to Mary Ann Aldridge, who has borne him two boys and two girls—Nora, George, John and Alice. Of these, Alice has passed away. In July, 1863, Mr. Hansell enlisted for six months in the One Hundred and Fifteenth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and in August, 1864, in the Eighteenth Indiana Battery, and fought at West Point, and in many skirmishes and minor engagements; he was mustered out in July, 1865. At present he is engaged in raising wheat and corn chiefly, and pays a great deal of attention to the breeding of blooded stock. He is probably the only man in the county that has a well-defined registered herd of "short horns." He lives three miles south of Medarysville, and owns a fine farm of 160 acres.

FRANCIS S. HORNER was born in Yorkshire, England, October 16, 1818, one of the ten children of Elias and Dorothy (Smith) Horner, of whom there are living Francis, Elias and Cornelius. The father, also a native of Yorkshire, was born in 1798, and, at the age of fourteen, was apprenticed for seven years to one of the great cutlery firms of Sheffield. In 1821 or 1822, he came to America, engaged in farming for several years, then in merchandising, at which he was occupied at the time of his death in 1854, in La Porte County, Ind. He was a sincere Christian, and an Elder in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Francis S. came to America with his father. At the age of thirteen, he was apprenticed to a harness-maker in Warren County, Ohio, and continued at the business for about five years, since when he has been engaged chiefly in farming. In 1854, he came to this township, and in 1872 to Medarysville, to engage in mercantile business, and is now one of the firm of E. W. Horner & Co., one of the most extensive establishments in the town. Francis S. was married, in 1839, to Isabel Campbell, who has borne him two children—Elizabeth and Dorothy, the latter deceased. Mrs. Horner died about the year 1843. In July, 1848, Mr. Horner married Margaret Callaway, who has borne him five children; the names of the living are Elias, Sarah, Eva and Francis. Mr. Horner is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and is an influential citizen.

LEW W. HUBBELL was born in Dearborn County, Ind., August 11, 1849, and is one of six children born to David and Frances (Wood) Hubbell. These children were named Sylvia (deceased), Lewis, James (deceased), Cyrus, Edward and John. The father was born in Ohio in 1826, came to this county in 1856, served ten years as Commissioner of the county, and died here in January, 1879. When Lew W. Hubbell was six or seven years old, he was brought by his father to Salem Township, this county, where he resided about eleven years; since then he has made this township his home. He was married, November 14, 1875, to Mary E. Byers, who has borne him four children—Frank, Fanny C., Earle Scott and Jesse. Frank is deceased. Mr. Hubbell now lives six miles south of Medarysville, and has a fertile and well cultivated farm, on which he chiefly raises corn and wheat, and, of stock, sheep and hogs. He is a Mason and a member of the Baptist Church, and he has probably done more toward the building-up of the public prosperity than any [illegible] of his age in the township.

HIRAM KESSINGER was born in Washington County, Md., [illegible]ruary 2, 1823, and is one of the nine children of Jacob and Ma[illegible] (Beard) Kessinger, named as follows: Jacob, Theodore, Benjamin, H[illegible] Luther, Mary (deceased), Margaret, Lucinda and George. The father was born in Maryland, took part in the war of 1812, and was engaged in a variety of occupations during life, such as tanner, merchant, manufacturer of earthenware, timner and farmer. He was well educated, and was quite a linguist; he died in Harrison County, Ind., in 1838. Hiram Kessinger came to Harrison County with his father in 1837, and he there was engaged in farming and merchandising. In January, 1870, he came to this township. He was married July 17, 1859, to Rowena Gaither, and has had born to him four children—Thomas, Caroline, Walter and Margaret, the last named deceased. In February, 1862, he enlisted in the Fifty-third Indiana Volunteer Infantry. Two months later, he became Ward Master in the hospital, and then Steward, holding the last-named position until mustered out in July, 1865. He was present at the sieges of Corinth, Vicksburg and Jackson; at the battle of Kenesaw Mountain, at the siege of Atlanta, at Jonesboro, with Sherman on his renowned march, at Savannah, Columbia, Raleigh, and other points. He owns a fine farm of 100 acres, two and a half miles south of Medarysville, raises a variety of crops, and has a neat residence and commodious outbuildings.

Be it remembered that at a term of the White Circuit Court of Indiana begun and held at the court house in the city of Monticello, White County, Indiana, commencing on the first Monday of September, the same being September 4th., 1922. Said term being held in pursuance of law, present the Honorable Benj.F.Carr, sole Judge of said court, G.V.Love, Clerk thereof and Van Price Jr. Sheriff of said county, and on the 6th. day of October, the same being the 29th., judicial day of said term, present the same Judge and other officiers as aforesaid the following proceedings were had and done, to-wit:-

Estate of Cornelius M.Horner, Deceased.

By No. 1974

Lucy J.Horner, Administratrix.

Comes now Lucy J.Horner, Administratrix of said estate by her attorneys, Horner & Thompson of Winamac, Indiana, and Clarence R.Cowger, of Monticello, Indiana, and comes now L.D.Carey, Master Commissioner, and files his favorable report approving the final report of the administratrix and recommending that final distribution on the basis set out in said final report be made, and that thereupon the administratrix be discharged and the estate closed, which report is in words and figures following (H.I.) 227

The Court, being fully advised, now finds that the final report of the Administratrix contains a true account of all personal assets with which she is chargeable; that she is entitled to credit for all disbursements shown by said report; that all debts and obligations of said estate and all costs have been paid; that the Federal Estate Tax has been paid; that the Inheritance Tax due the State of Indiana has been paid from the respective shares of the said estate in the sum of $11774.76; that partial distributions have been made to the heirs by assignment and transfer of certificates of stock and bonds and by advancements of cash, which distributions so made pending administration amount to the total sum of $124016.59; that more than one year has elapsed since the appointment and qualification of said administratrix and publication of notice thereof; that due notice of appointment and due notice of final settlement have been given herein as required by law; that nothing further remains to be done in the administration of said estate except final distribution of the amount remaining in the hands of said Administratrix as shown by said final report.

Said final report is now approved and all the acts of said administratrix are in all things ratified and confirmed.

The Court further grants the prayer of the petition of said administratrix asking authority in her final distribution to assign certain notes and mortgages and pay certain money to the Farmers & Traders State Bank of Monon, Indiana, as Trustee, and said administratrix is authorized and directed as part of her final distribution to assign, transfer, and deliver to said Farmers & Traders State Bank of Monon, Indiana, as Trustee, all of said uncollected notes and mortgages belonging to said estate, and to pay over to said bank, as Trustee, the sum of $10000.00 in cash, to be held and accounted for by said Trustee, pursuant to the trust agreement set out in said petition.

The Court finds and directs that the full balance of $7794.48 then remaining in the hands of said administratrix shall be distributed among the heirs.

The Court finds further that the said Cornelius M. Horner, deceased, left surviving him as his sole and only heirs at law the following named persons and that the said heirs are entitled to receive in full settlement and on final distribution the following amounts to-wit:-

|---|---|
| Lucy J. Horner, widow | $15403.93 |
| William C. Horner, son | 6929.16 |
| Emma F. Hinkle, daughter | 6929.16 |
| J. Francis Horner, son | 6929.16 |
| Mary E. Reed, daughter | 6929.15 |
| Flora E. Diamondstone, daughter | 6929.15 |
| Alta E. Smith, daughter | 6929.15 |
| Herbert M. Horner | 6929.15 |
| Cornelius C. Horner | 6929.15 |
| Pearl Johns | 3557.66 |
| Clara C. Richard | 3557.66 |

That said heirs are each of full and lawful age.

Comes now the said administratrix and files her supplemental report showing full and final distribution in accordance with her final report and the order of this Court, and files therewith the receipts and vouchers of each and all of the heirs, which report and vouchers in full and final settlement are in words and figures following, (H.I.).

The Court now approves said supplemental report, and said estate is now declared fully and finally settled and said administratrix is hereby discharged and her bond released from further liability, and said estate is closed.

State of Indiana,
White County, SS:

I, G.V. Love, Clerk of the White Circuit Court of Indiana, hereby certify the above and foregoing to be full, true and complete copies of the order of the court appointing Lucy J. Horner, administratrix of the estate of Cornelius M. Horner, deceased, application for letters, bond, oath and letters of administration, and of the final order of the court discharging said administratrix, as the same all appear from the records and files of said court of which records and files I am the legal custodian.

Witness my hand the seal of said court this 11th., day of October, 1922.

DECLARATION FOR WIDOW'S PENSION.

Number 1261133 4482

Claimant Phil Lucy Holmes

Soldier Cornelius M. Holmes

Service Q 138-Q 151 Ind. Inf.

INSTRUCTIONS.

This form is to be used ONLY by or in behalf of a widow who desires to claim pension under the Act of May 1, 1920, above named, on account of the service of an officer or enlisted man who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps during the Civil War.

Declaration and testimony in support of same to be executed before some officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes. If such officer is not required by law to have and use a seal, his official character, signature, and term of office must be certified by the proper State, county, or city officer under his official seal, unless a certificate has been filed in the Bureau of Pensions for general reference.

Act of April 19, 1908.

SEC. 2. That if any officer or enlisted man who served ninety days or more in the Army or Navy of the United States during the late civil war, and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, has died, or shall hereafter die, leaving a widow, such widow shall, upon due proof of her husband's death, without proving his death to be the result of his army or navy service, be placed on the pension roll from the date of the filing of her application therefor under this Act at the rate of twelve dollars per month during her widowhood, provided that said widow shall have married said soldier or sailor prior to June twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety; and the benefits of this section shall include those widows whose husbands, if living, would have a pensionable status under the Joint Resolution of February fifteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five; July first, nineteen hundred and two, and June twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and six.

SEC. 3. That no claim agent or attorney shall be recognized in the adjudication of claims under the first section of this Act, and that no agent, attorney, or other person engaged in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting any claim under the provisions of the second section of this Act shall, directly or indirectly, contract for, demand, receive, or retain for such services in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting such claim a sum greater than ten dollars, which sum shall be payable only upon the order of the Commissioner of Pensions by the pension agent making payment of the pension allowed; and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or who shall wrongfully withhold from the pensioner or claimant the whole or any part of a pension or claim allowed or due such pensioner or claimant under this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each and every such offense, be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or be imprisoned at hard labor not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Section 3 of the act of Congress, approved by the President September 8, 1916, reads as follows:

SEC. 3. That any widow, as described in section two of the Act approved April nineteenth, nineteen hundred and eight, who married the soldier or sailor prior to June twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and five, shall have title to pension under the provisions of said section of said Act, to commence from the date of filing her application in the Bureau of Pensions after the passage of this Act: Provided, however, That where a pension has been granted to a soldier's or sailor's helpless or idiotic child or children, or child or children under the age of sixteen years, his widow shall not be entitled to pension under this section, unless the pension to such child or children has terminated, or unless such child or children be a member or members of her family and cared for by her, and upon allowance of pension to the widow, payment of pension to such child or children shall cease.

Section 4 of the Act of May 1, 1920, provides: That the widow of any person who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the Civil War for ninety days or more, and was honorably discharged from such service, or regardless of the length of service, was discharged for or died in service of a disability incurred in the service and in the line of duty, such widow having been married to such soldier, sailor, or marine prior to the 27th day of June, 1905, shall be entitled to and shall be paid a pension at the rate of $30 per month; and any widow as mentioned in this section, shall also be paid $6 per month for each child of such officer or enlisted man under the age of sixteen years;

And provided further, That the rate of pension for the widow of any person who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States in the War of 1812, or for sixty days or more in the War with Mexico, on the coasts or frontier thereof, or en route thereto, during the war with that nation, and was honorably discharged therefrom, shall be $30 per month.

ANNUAL EXHIBIT

Of City Schools Will be Held Friday, May 21

VERY INTERESTING FEATURES

Will be Shown in Each Room---Public Will Have Opportunity to See Work Being Done by Schools---Child Welfare Exhibit.

Final preparations for the annual school exhibit, which will be held on Friday, May 21, are well under way and the indications are that the work will be more interestingly displayed than for several years past. Many new features are being added this year in the line of special exhibitions and demonstrations to be put on in the various grades and departments of the school.

The program of specialties in the grades will open at the South building at one-thirty. Room one at this building will give a drill entitled, "The Overall Boys;" Room two will present a program of songs, drills and recitations based upon the idea of exterminating the fly. Not only these special numbers, but also the display of the regular work which has been done by the children throughout the year, promise to be interesting and should be visited by all patrons of these rooms and as many others as find it possible to do so.

The program of special numbers at the West building will be at two o'clock, when Miss Orton's room will give an exhibit of folk games. At two-fifteen Miss Cullum's room will show their skill in dramatization by presenting two playlets. At two-forty the Third Grade will give an exercise, "With the Birds," which is especially interesting at this time of year. At three o'clock the Fourth Grade will give a folk dance on the lawn accompanied by violin [illegible]

PARTS OF PERSIA

Will Speak at M. E. Church Next Sunday Evening Under Auspices of Y. W. F. M. S.

Paulus Boodagh, A. B., of Persia, will be at the M. E. church under the auspices of the Y. W. F. M. S. next Sunday evening, May 23, to deliver an address. He is a graduate of the mission schools in Persia and from the United States to complete his education for Christian service. He has almost finished his work in Northwestern University, is a polished gentleman and comes highly recommended as a speaker. He is called to speak for churches, Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. He has given addresses, in this conference, to audiences in Grace church and Lowell Heights church, South Bend, Michigan City, Whiting, Westville, La Crosse and other places.

The following is what was said of him in Grace church, South Bend: "He was here last Sunday and we have never had any one who made such an impression on all the people as he."

Do not fail to come and hear his message.

The address will be followed by a song and tableau, by the Y. W. F. M. S.

One of County's Most Substantial Citizens

HAS PASSED A FORTUNE

By Individual Effort and Keen Foresight---A Self-Made Man---Active in Business at Seventy-Nine Years---Funeral Friday.

Cornelius Montford Horner, one of White County's most substantial citizens, died at St. Elizabeth hospital at Lafayette Monday morning following an illness of ten days. Mr. Horner became ill at his home in Monon and on Tuesday of last week was taken to the hospital for treatment and a possible operation but upon examination the operation was not deemed advisable.

Mr. Horner had risen from a poor boy with a country school education and with no influential or rich friends to assist him to a [illegible] of wealth and prominence in the community. He had started with nothing but his ambition and had [illegible] success of all his business [illegible] until at the time of his death his wealth was estimated at [illegible] millions.

The deceased was born in Wakoneta, Angelaize County, Ohio, January 3, 1842, and was the youngest of ten children born to Elias and Elizabeth D. (Smith) Horner. His parents were natives of Leeds, England, and came to the United States after their first child was born. During the family's residence in Ohio Mr. Horner's father taught school and bought live stock. In 1851 he moved his family to Indiana, settling in Laporte County, where he engaged in mercantile business. When Mr. Horner was quite young, his father died and he went to Pulaski County where he worked [illegible] schools [illegible]

Chalmers Auction.

Queen Carol, owned by A. F. Nagel of Chalmers topped the second annual sale of the White County Shorthorn Breeders' Association, which was held at the sale pavilion in this city last Monday, when she was sold to Guy E. Wolverton, also of Chalmers, for $1,000. The sale consisted of sixty head of pure bred Shorthorns and the purchases amounted to over $14,000, the lowest price paid being $115.

The sale attracted buyers from all parts of the [illegible] and many of the [illegible] of thirty-one members and [illegible] which were consigned in the sale Monday show that much [illegible] is being expended by the members of the association to bring the breeding of Shorthorns to the front in White County. The pavilion provides splendid quarters for sales and will fill a long felt need in White County.

Carey M. Jones of Chicago, and Scott Milne of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, together with Auctioneer A. F. Nagel, who is also secretary of the association, had charge of the sale, and J. H. Smith of Chalmers, acted as clerk. Representatives of the Shorthorn World, The Farmers' Guide, Breeders' Gazette and American Shorthorn Breeders' Association were present at the sale.

WILL GIVE LATIN PLAY.

"Scenes from the Life of Cicero," is the title of a play which will be given in the high school assembly room next Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Latin Department. The public is invited to attend and lend its support to the entertainment, the proceeds of which will be used to defray the expenses of framing the pictures recently received from Rome and which will remain in the Latin department of the school permanently.

ON LONG MOTOR TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson left Thursday afternoon on a motor trip to Opstead, Minnesota, where they will spend several weeks with the former's son, Oscar Robinson and family. The trip to Opstead will be made in a leisurely fashion and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will camp en route, having had their car equipped to make comfortable sleeping quarters.

[illegible] mercely: Urban H. [illegible] Richards, William C. Horner and Mrs. W. J. Hickle. Two of the [illegible] William C. Horner and Mrs. W. J. Hickle, both of Monon, survive.

At the call of President Lincoln for volunteers Mr. Horner offered himself but the quota was full and it was necessary for him to wait for a short time. However, he enlisted in Company A, 138th Infantry and was with that organization in one of the early campaigns of the Mississippi Valley, including the battle of Stone river. At the close of the first year of his enlistment, he re-enlisted in Company A, of the 15th Indiana Volunteer Infantry and remained with that company until the close of the war, when he received an honorable discharge.

Mr. Horner came to Monon in 1865 and engaged in business, where for thirty years he continued as a prosperous merchant. In 1892 he established the Monon Bank, one of the prosperous financial institutions of Monon. He disposed of his mercantile interests in 1894, since which time he has devoted his entire attention to the bank and to his extensive farming interests.

In 1873 Mr. Horner was again married to Miss Lucy J. Kerr, who with five children survive. They are J. F. Horner of this city; Mrs. Mary E. Reed, Mrs. Flora E. Dorgoudstone, Mrs. Alta K. Smith and Herbert H. Horner. Two children, Dorothy and Cornelius, Jr., died in infancy.

The funeral will be held at the family home in Monon, Friday afternoon at two o'clock and will be private. Services will be conducted by Rev. Fred Longwell, pastor of the M. E. church at Monon and interment will be made at the Chalmers cemetery. Friends desiring to call may do so between the hours of [illegible] a. m. and 5 p. m. Thursday.

Apr. 23 1864.

Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt from your Office of application for Pension No. 21909, and to return it herewith, with such information as is furnished by the files of this Office in reply to your inquiry of Apr 21/64

There is no evidence on file in this Office that George F Albion was enrolled and mustered into service in Co. "A", 33d Regiment of Indiana Volunteers. But on the Muster Roll of Co. "A" of that Regiment, for the months of May & June, 1863, there is the following evidence of service: He is reported a private, "Killed in action at Thompson's Station Tenn. March 5/63."

I am Sir very respectfully
Your obedient servant

Leon Trask
Assistant Adjutant General.

DECLARATION FOR WIDOW'S ARMY PENSION.

State of Indiana }
County of Morgan } SS.

On this 8 day of May A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty three personally appeared before me Jonathan J Wright Clerk of the Circuit Court within and for the County and State aforesaid Mrs Minerva Jane Allison a resident of in the County of Morgan and State of Indiana aged 22 years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on her oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the act of Congress, approved July 14, 1862. That she is the widow of George H Allison who enlisted in the service of United States at Indianapolis in the State of Indiana on the 30 day of August 1862 as a Private in Company A commanded by Capt Andrew J. Wellman in the 33 Regiment of Indiana volunteers in the War of 1861; who while in the service aforesaid and in the line of his duty died by reason of wounds received at the battle of Thompson Station at Thompson Station in the State of Tennessee on the 5 day of March A. D. 1863

She further declares that she was married to the said George H Allison on the 1st day of March in the year 1857 at said county that her name before her said marriage was Minerva Jane Brewer that her husband, the aforesaid George H Allison died on the day above-mentioned, and that she has remained a widow ever since that period, as will more fully appear by reference to the proof hereto annexed; that the names and ages of her children under sixteen years of age, at her husband's decease, and the place of their residence is as follows: Mary Margarett Allison born on the 15 day of August 1862. only child, and that she lives with her at said Morgan count State of Indiana

She also declares that she has not in any manner been engaged in or aided or abetted the rebellion in the United States. She hereby appoints Harrison & Shively of Martinsville County of Morgan State of Indiana her true and lawful Attorney, with full power of substitution to prosecute this claim for pension, and to receive the certificate to be issued therefor.

Minerva Jane Allison
Signature of Claimant.

Also personally appeared Edward S. Wilhite and Walker W. Cavaness residents of County of Morgan State of Indiana whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit, and who, being by me first duly sworn, say they were present and saw Minerva Jane Allison sign her name to the foregoing declaration and power of attorney; and they further swear that they have every reason to believe, from the appearance of the applicant, and their acquaintance with her, that she is the identical person she represents herself to be; that they have been well acquainted with her and her said husband George H. Allison deceased for 20 years and know they lived together as husband and wife, and were so reputed; that the name age and residence of her child as represented by her in the foregoing declaration is true, as they verily believe; that she has remained a widow ever since her said husband's decease, and that she has not, in any manner aided or abetted the rebellion; and that they have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

Edward S. Wilhite
Walker W. Cavaness
Signature of Witnesses.

Sworn to, acknowledged and subscribed, before me, this 8th day of May 1863, and I hereby certify that I have no interest, direct or indirect, in the prosecution of this claim. Witness my hand and the seal of said Court.

in a jewelry store in Pittsfield, Mass., where he learned engraving, at which business he worked for some time, and then went to Kendall County, Ill., where he farmed and reared stock to some extent. He was there married, January 26, 1860, to Margaret A., daughter of William and Anna (Griffin) Haymond, who has borne him two children—Jennie L., July 30, 1863, and Lytle E., October 17, 1867. In 1875, he came to this township and purchased eighty acres of prairie land, put up a dwelling and other improvements and is now engaged in farming. Mr. Gale is a member of Monon Lodge, No. 208, A. F. & A. M., of Francesville; his wife, daughter and self are members of the Free-Will Baptist Church, and in politics he is a Republican.

CASPER H. GARRIGUES was born in Philadelphia July 15, 1800, and is the son of Abraham M. and Esther (Marshall) Garrigues, also natives of said city. Casper attended Westown Boarding School until fourteen, when his father moved to Germantown. There our subject attended school and assisted his father on the farm until sixteen, and then served at the plasterer's trade until twenty-one, which trade he followed afterward continually. In the fall of 1831, he married Ann C., daughter of William and Sarah (Laskey) Stokes. She was born April 14, 1804, and bore her husband six children—Charles H., April 21, 1832; Elwood S., July 6, 1833 (died October 2, 1840); Marshall S., August 15, 1835; William H., July 28, 1840 (died November 4, 1847); Sarah L., September 2, 1842 (died December 7, 1880); and Esther R., December 17, 1844 (died March 4, 1858). In 1838, Mr. Garrigues moved to Circleville, Ohio, worked at his trade until April, 1857, and then came to Francesville and bought some property. December 7, 1881, Mrs. Garrigues died, a member of the Presbyterian Church, of which organization Mr. G. is also a member. Charles H. Garrigues, the eldest son, resides near his father's home, and is a carpenter. He came here with his father, and at the breaking-out of the late war went to Washington as a member of the Indiana Relief Society. In 1863, he returned home, and in 1864, was drafted and assigned to Company H, Seventeenth Indiana Mounted Infantry. He was appointed Hospital Steward, and served as such until the close of the war. April 21, 1868, he married Cynthia M., daughter of John C. and Mary E. (Wilhite) Brewer, who has borne him five children—Cynthia M., September 21, 1869; Casper C., February 24, 1871; John U., August 5, 1874; Sarah M., June 20, 1877; and Theodore S., October 2, 1880

I Charles N. Harrigues late a Hospital Steward of the 17th Ind Vols. being of lawfull age, and duly sworn according to law, on my oath do say - That in the summer of 1855. I moved to Francesville, Pulaski County Indiana. and resided in that place untill my draft in 1864. after my discharge in Aug 1865. returned to Francesville Ind, and have resided there untill the present time. That I was not in the Military or Naval Service of the United States prior to my draft in 1864 - nor since my discharge in 1865. That at the time of my draft was a sound able bodied man. That on a March near Gravelly Springs, Alabama, in the latter part of January 1865. I was taken with Chronic Diarrhoea for which I was treated in quarters and afterwards on a march to - and in Macon Ga - By George. M. Collins, Asst Surgeon of the 17th Indiana Vols, In the latter part of June 1865. was taken with Bleeding Hemerhoids at Macon Ga - caused by debility from Diarrhoea and riding horseback - was treated for both disabilities while at Macon Ga By said - George. M. Collins. both in quarters and at the private house of a Mr Ohnell.

said Collins being part of the time on duty in Macon Co. Since my discharge have never received any Medical attendance, except W. J. Sonnis, M.D. of Francesville Ind. for either disability for the following reasons. Some years prior to my draft, I was a Drug Clerk for near X For (4) years, and had a knowledge of Medicine on account of which knowledge I was appointed Hospital Steward, said Surgeon Collins told me he considered me incurable and that I was competent to treat my self.
In 1869 I had a bad spell and went to my Family Physician, J. G. Winegarden, M.D. for some treatment, after a long talk, he told me he could not cure me, and the remedies I was using, were as good as I could get, and declined prescribing for me * said Dr Winegarden, moved from here to Winamac Indiana, and died about 1874. I have talked about my disabilities frequently with M. M. Gordon, M.D. of this place, who says he thinks from my knowledge of Medicine and Army position I was competent to care for my self, without treatment by an M.D. and that the advice I have had was sufficient. Since my discharge I have had no sickness other than Chronic Diarrhoea and Neuralgia which have been increasing from years to year since my discharge, now disabling me from following my trade of Carpenter regularly, as lifting or being long at work at the bench brings on the Hemerhoids. I and further say I am interested in this claim, being the claimant in this case, and that my Post Office address is Francesville, Pulaski County, Ind.

Sudden Call takes Former Salem Trustee - Ross Nelson stricken;

Ross R. Nelson, 72 years old and former trustee of Salem Twp., died Sunday eve. at his home in Francesville following a sudden heart attack. Although he had not been feeling well for several days, his death came as a shock to friends and family. He had started to turn on the TV set for a late news broadcast, when he collapsed and slumped to the floor, medical help was summoned, but he passed away in a few minutes.

Mr. Nelson was born in Frncesville on Sept. 22, 1886, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Nelson. He spent his entire lifetime in that community, graduating from high school there in 1904. For many years he was a clerk in the former Mallon's grocery and dry goods store. His marriage to Miss Madge Fleming took place in 1913 in Danville, Ill.

An active worker in the Republican party, Mr. Nelson had just completed his second term as township trustee. He was a member of the Francesville Christian Church.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, Ross O. Nelson Jr. of Hermosa Beach, Calif., and Maurice Eugene Nelson of Crawfordsville; a sister, Mrs. Delia Taylor of Crawfordsville; five grandchildren.

Final rites were held Wednesday afternoon at the Querry funeral home, The Rev. A.C. Spellman officiating. Burial was in Roseland cemetery.

Urban Cooper Brewer entered the ministry at the age of 17. He was a minister in New York City at the time of the Civil War being there for eight years. In 1870 he was in Salem Twp., Pulaski Co. Ind. In 1880 he was a minister in Indianapolis. In 1899 he was settled in Danville, Hendricks co. Ind. He was buried Mar. 14, 1915 in Danville, Ind. He was a Minister of the Christian church.

being one and a half miles east of Stilesville, and comprising 400 acres. In his early days he was a soldier under Jackson in the war of 1812, and was at the battle of New Orleans. Mr. Bryant died aged sixty-six years. He had three sons in the Civil war: John B., Daniel P. and Richard B.

Richard B. Bryant was born October 16, 1835, in Clay township, one mile east of Amo. He enlisted at Gosport, Owen county, Ind., November 1, 1861, in company B, Fifty-ninth regiment Indiana infantry, as a private, and served thirteen months. He married in 1863, October 20, Abigail Newman, daughter of John and Mary (Blair) Newman. Mr. Newman was one of the pioneers of the county, from North Carolina. Mr. Bryant settled in Stilesville and engaged in the drug business for three years, and then came to Coatsville, in 1874, and engaged in the drug business, which he continued fifteen years, and is now retired. He was very successful, and owns a farm of 100 acres. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant have seven children: Greeley W., Mary, Henry O., Robert, Rose, Laura and Clara.

REV. URBAN COOPER BREWER, of Danville, springs from sturdy German and English stock, who sought Virginia long before the Revolution. William Brewer, the grandfather of our subject, was a native of Culpeper county, Va., who settled in Randolph county, N. C., and married Elizabeth Cavaness. Mr. Brewer finally came from North Carolina to Morgan county, Ind., in 1832, and was one of the pioneers of this county, where he died. He was the father of seven children: John C. Brewer, father of our subject, was born in 1817 in Randolph county, and came with his father to Indiana when a boy. He married Mary E. Wilhite, daughter of Noah and Polly (Williams) Wilhite. John C. Brewer remained in Morgan county until 1857, when he moved to Pulaski county, Ind., He was the father of ten children, Urban C. being the eldest. The Rev. Urban C. Brewer was born January 27, 1837, in Morgan county, Ind., at Minerva. He was educated for the law and graduated at New York city in 1862. He had early studied for the ministry and was ordained at Indianapolis in June, 1860. He returned to Indiana in October, 1862, and for two years retired to his farm in Pulaski county. In 1870 he came to Danville and was pastor of the Christian church for four years, and then went to Greensburg and was pastor of a Christian church there two years, and in 1878 went to Indianapolis and was pastor of the Central church until 1881, and then returned to Danville and was pastor of his old charge for three years, and since that has had charge of the different churches in Hendricks county, viz: Plainfield, Brownsburg, Pittsboro, Lizton, North Salem and Clayton, and in 1890 was elected auditor of Hendricks county for four years, a position which he still fills. In politics he is a republican. Fraternally he is a member of Silcox lodge, I. O. O. F., of Danville. He married in 1886, October 11, Emma H., daughter of Dudley P. and Amelia (Gregory) Hall, of Lyndon, Vermont. To Rev. and Mrs. Brewer seven children have been born: Evangeline, Albert, Clarence, Charles, Mary A., Hall and Ruth.

DR. JOHN A. OSBORNE, of New Winchester, Ind., is one of the leading physicians of Hendricks county, and an ex-county official, of English ancestry, who was among the founders of the Old Dominion. Nathan Osborne, the grandfather of our subject, was born about 1787, and went to Kentucky among the original pio-
